GIRL LOST: FINDING YOUR VOICE THROUGH EATING DISORDER RECOVERY

Lynnsong Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 194 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .If you are a parent - Girl Lost is an excellent primer on the basics of your child s eating disorder. It gives you invaluable insight into your child s internal battle and into the eating disorder she is battling. It is vital you understand the dynamics going on between her and the illness so you can confront the eating disorder thinking and behavior. This life and death information will empower you so you can help her get better. The other reason this book is for you, the parent; is it is like a letter you can give your child about what she is experiencing. It is written specifically to her by an objective person; so she may be more open if she has reacted defensively with you who most love her. Girl Lost will help her be more objective about her illness because she is learning it is not her fault. It will also show her the eating disorder is not just about whether or not she will attend an appointment but how she wants to live the rest of her life. If you are a professional - I always wished I d had something attractive, simple and educational to send home with each new client. I was never able to find anything that met this need satisfactorily. This desire was one of the purposes for Girl Lost. It is supposed to be a quick and easy read to increase the chance your client will actually read it. Girl Lost will give you and your client a common and immediate language to ground you in your early work together. If you are a young person -...
