Comprehensive guide! Its this type of very good read through. It is actually written in simple words and phrases rather than difficult to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

The case made by my clients is this: --They admit the establishment of the congregation of Clough, and its original formation at the time stated in the Bill; and they also. admit. upon belief, that the different n 0 26 ministers who have been stated to have officiated from time to llmfir as the clergymen of that congregation previous to the year 1721, were the same persons as mentioned in the bill; and, that in the year 1722 Hugh Williamson was ordained the minister of that congregation. But, they state, from the several facts that have come within their knowledge--from all they have understood and believe, that the Reverend Hugh Williamson was not a subscriber to the Westminster confession of faith. They admit the grant made by Mr. Francis Annesley, in the year l736, to the Reverend Hugh Williamson, and the other persons named in the deed, of the ground upon which the present meeting-house stands, and that the trusts of that deed are...
