However, within the scope of this essay, special emphasis should be laid on reading English literature. Literary works which are not written in the pupils mother tongue may hold a certain appeal to them. Moreover, they could make a considerable contribution to understanding, speaking and learning English as an EFL student. A more detailed argumentation why pupils could particularly benefit from reading literature in the English classroom and how this could be done from the didactic perspective of a teacher will be dealt with in the following. The short story The Exit Door Leads In by Philip K. Dick will therefore serve as an example of approaching literature in the EFL class. Since the story can be...
