This for a young man only one year established and twentysix years of age was a remarkable testimonial of confidence by the people of the county. Mr. Fee is an active church man, a member of the Southern Methodist Church, for two years past a steward in the local organization and a district steward of the East Coast District. He is also affiliated with the great fraternal order of the Woodmen of the World. While at Stetson University he was a member of the Greek letter fraternity, Phi Kappa Delta, and served a time as president and grand master of that order. Judge Fee has occasionally contributed to the local press on questions of interest to the people of St. Lucie county, and during his college career was a frequent contributor to the college magazine. On September 3, 1907, he married Miss Emma Morgan, a daughter of Colonel Eli O. and Leasy (Geiger) Morgan. His wife s father, Colonel Morgan, was one of the prominent cattle men of the State. Of this marriage there is one son, William Morgan Fee, born May 30, 1908. Judge Fee is a general reader, but he acknowledges special obligations to that monumental work of Henry George s, known as Progress and Poverty. There is no question that the man who will read and give intelligent thought to that great work better Fred Fee 207 qualifies himself for the duties of citizenship....
