Unquiet Diplomacy

By Cellucci, Paul

Toronto, ON, Canada: Key Porter Books, Toronto, ON, Canada, 2005. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. Book Description: On April 17, 2001, at the Citadel in Quebec City, Paul Cellucci presented his credentials as the 20th United States Ambassador to Canada to Governor General Adrienne Clarkson. Since then, Ambassador Paul Cellucci has made his mark on Canada. He has focused on the central elements of the well-established and dynamic U.S. -Canadian relationship. It is the largest trading partnership in the world and it shares the longest undefended border. There have been some very tough times during Celluccis years in Canada and in this book he, in his characteristically open and forthright fashion, addresses all the issues that affect our complex relationship both in terms of trade and foreign affairs. There are the continuing irritants of trade disputes, such as the softwood lumber issue and Canadas reluctance to join forces with the United States in its missile defense plan. His years as a United States ambassador will be remembered as important and transformative ones, unfolding in the shadow of 9/11 and the American-led war on terror. When it comes to the crunch, as Paul Cellucci says, security trumps trade...
