And I think that Congress is doing the right thing in proposing that in its legislation, and I am ready, if confirmed, to tackle those new problems. And I would look forward to it. OLLINS Chairman C. Do you believe that the Commission at present is adequately staffed and has sufficient resources to take on these new responsibilities Mr. B. I would have to get down there to look at the staffing LAIR levels and determine if we have the right mix of skills available down there, if we have the right people with the right kind of talent. So I want to reserve judgment before I get down there, but I think given the new role for the Commission, it certainly envisions a more robust...
