Excerpt: . . . all this education The beginnings of education are started in and about the home in the child's attitude and reaction toward his environment. All the time he is learning to see and hear and to think. The child whose mother and father live with him is sure to store up experiences and be able to compare and relate them later, to be observing, to be constructive (which is the only remedy for destructiveness), and to be able to express himself as well as to have something in his mind to express. In play children are constantly educating themselves. They are learning to direct their attention and their motions persistently toward a definite end. We can suggest plays and tasks which will train the eye to see quickly and teach the colors, directions (front, back, up, down, right, left); the points of the compass, the time of day, and the days of the week. My little 4-year old learns much as she sits beside me at the sewing machine. She arranges my drawer of thread, learns the colors and plays a game, guessing which color is gone from a long row of spools. A set of colored kindergarten balls, a box of crayons, or later a box of paints make an excellent Christmas gift and aid in color training. Colored papers and a small pair of scissors will occupy many a stormy day profitably. The mother who is at all musical can train the ear to...
