Duncan includes sections on all aspects of screenwriting from character development to story templates and breaks down the three acts of a screenplay into manageable pieces. The second half of Duncan's practical book covers another, often overlooked, side of screenwriting the teleplay. Aspiring writers who also want to try their hand at writing for television will need to learn the specifics of the field. The book breaks down this area into two parts, the one-hour teleplay and the situation comedy.
