Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Papers Read Before the Lancaster County Historical Society, Vol. 25: Saturday, September 17, 1921 at the Drumore Celebration History Herself, as Seen in Her Own Workshop; Friends of Drumore: The Historical Society of Lancaster County, which I have the honor to represent on this occasion, jointly with the Historical Commission of Pennsylvania, has erected on this commanding point within her rolling uplands, this monument to four illustrious sons of Drumore. We have done this to perpetuate the worthy memories of these men: Dr. David Ramsay, Continental Army surgeon, friend of Washington, leader of constructive legislation in Congress, brilliant man of letters, and The Father of American History. Col. Thomas Porter, pioneer organizer of the spirit of independence and of militant patriotism in Lancaster County. Gen. John Steele, wise man of affairs in early American life and fighting leader on important fields of the Revolutionary War. Col. Archibald Steele, picturesque in his ruggedness and ardor, who broke the leash of his home ties at the shot of Bunker Hill and bolted afoot for the distant scene. These four men, prominently within their day, were master builders of this our United States and it is eminently fitting that purely for their memories sake their names and deeds should be spread upon enduring bronze. But these four plates carry with them something more immediate than mere record and memorial. Their legends fairly ring out with a challenge to the imagination of Drumore youth. Who were these men that they have thus lived on? Who these three plodding plowboys, turning this all too familiar sod, that they should be thus impressively outlined on the horizon of the past; and...
